Enchanted Thyme

by Ariane Smith and Chef Michael Wilson: Blending A Passion for Writing and Cooking for Children.

The title is as original, organic and appetizing as the book. The author Ariane Smith, an award winning playwright and children's entertainer, bakes up a delicious tale surrounding a sister and brother, Belinda and Peter, and three magical winged mice, Marjoram, Basil and Rosemary, take them to the land of Enchanted Thyme, where the Fricasee Fairy has placed the kingdom under a dark spell. Peter and Belinda are chosen to help find a secret ingredient to satisfy the Queen's unsatiable appetite, and by doing so they will break the spell.

A magical tale great for ages 5 and up, The book recommends read with; 5 - 8 years old. Read alone; 8 years and up. Enchanted Thyme has the right ingredients for an engaging, yummy reading . The chapters are short, great for bedtime reading, and at the end of each chapter is wonderful child approved recipes that you can make at home. Created by Chef Michael Wilson, an acclaimed New York Chef, recipies such as "Peter's Pirates Gold", "Everyone's Fizzly, Wizzly and Most Dizzly Punch", and "Creepy Swamp Stew," will satisfy all of your senses.

Enchanted Thyme is not yet released, and will be in September. AlohaParent.com has been fortunate to receive two advance copies to give away to our newsletter subscribers. We would love to give away a book to the first two parents who submit their favorite kid-loved recipies and will print them in our next newsletter!
